Brackenhill House, Shotton Colliery, Durham

Starting Bid: £699,950.00

Brackenhill House offers a totally unique opportunity to acquire a magnificent house, as well as six residential building plots within the walled eight acre grounds. Brackenhill House was built in the 1930's by the Horden and Blackhall Coal Company as a Colliery officials house, but to a design which gives it an older and more elegant appearance. The accommodation now combines six spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, four receptions, including a magnificent oak hall, staircase and landing with modern features including a stylish kitchen, sauna and oil central heating.

Planning Permission: Planning Permission has been granted for the development of six executive detached houses within the grounds. Each of the plots are generous, but the size of the site ensures that Brackenhill House will retain a substantial garden.
